

I Heard You Been Layin' My Old Lady
Rusty Weir

<G>Well Joe I thot we'd <C>just sit down and <G>drink a beer
<G>I know you're wonderin <A7>why I called and <D>asked here
It's <G>around the town that <G7>youbeen seein <C>Sue <A7>
So I <G>called you here to <D>ask if it was <G>true

--Chorus--

Well <C>I heard you been <D>layin' my old <G>lady (wooooo boy Joe!)
<A7>Man times must be getting tough <D>everywhere
<C>I heard you been <D>layin' my old <G>lady <E7>
Well I <C>like you Joe but <D>wives are hard to <G>share

<G>Well Joe you know<C> 10 long years is a <G>long long time
F<G>or bein faithful <A7>to just one
Aw <D>Joe it'll mess your mind
Well <G>Joe y'know I <G7>done my share of <C>runnin round <A7>
But I <G>never knew that <D>you and Sue would <G>put me down

(chorus)

<G>Well Joe and I, we <C>talked abit
Lord I <G>still don't understand
<G>How Sue could do all those t<A7>hangs to me,
<D>go runnin off lovin on another man
<G>I thought it out now <G7>I can see there's <C>just one way to <A7>go
I guess <G>I'll give Sue and those <D>snotty nosed kids to <G>Joe

(chorus)
